VOL. III. NO. 48 GREENSBORO, N. C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1898. Price Two Cents

No More Credit.

After Sept. 30th. 1898, we will adopt the Cash System. Our books will be closed and our prices reduced from ten to fifteen per cent. We are convinced that this is the proper way to conduct a dry goods and shoe business to the mutual interest of customer and merchant. It will cost any merchant from ten to fifteen per cent more to do a credit business than it would to sell the same amount of goods for cash; this difference we propose to give our customers if they are willing to pay us spot cash. (Proof of the above statement can be seen below.) We feel sure that any one buying for cash will not fail to see where it will be to their interest to trade with us.

Thanking you for past favors, we are, Yours truly,
J. M. HENDRIX & CO.

FOR EXAMPLE—Mr. A buys dry goods and shoes to the amount of $1,000 and sell them on credit at a profit of 30 per cent, his gain is $300, but this is not all gain as the following will prove: Any merchant doing a credit busines is bound to have some losses. This we will put at the low estimate of 5 per cent. He will have to employ a bookkeeper and collector, which will cost him 5 per cent, and if he sells on credit he must necessarily buy on credit. and thereby sustain a loss of 5 per cent discount which he could get off if he paid cash for his goods. Add all these losses and expenses together and we find that Mr. A. instead of making $300, has only made $150.

Now we will look at the other side of this question.

Mr. B buys dry goods and shoes to the amount of $1,000 and sells them for cash at a profit of 15 per cent; his profit would be $150. Mr. B, by selling his goods for cash will be able to pay cash and get the 5 per cent discount which would amount to $50. Add this to the $150 and we find that Mr. B has made $200, or $50 more than Mr. A. and has sold his goods at one-half the profit. In other words Mr. B, the cash man, has sold his customers goods 15 per cent less than Mr. A, and has made $50 more. Is it not plain to see that selling goods for cash is of mutual interest to merchant and buyer?

J. M. HENDRIX & CO.

THE CHRISTIAN'S DUTY.

In Temperance Work—It is Clearly Defined.

(A paper read by Mrs. Dr. E. L. Stamey at a meeting of the South Greensboro W. C. T. U.)

The christain's duty in temperance work is clearly defined in the Bible, our guide in all things, by such passages as the following: "Be temperate in all things," Touch not, taste not, handle not," "Look not upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth its color in the cup." At the last it "Biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder." "Who hath woe? Who hath sorrow? They that tarry long at the wine, they that go to seek mixed wine."

The evil effects of intemperance are too evident in our midst to require mention. The question we wish to consider is, "Is it our Christian duty to strive to promote temperance in our homes and to banish intemperance forever from our country. Did not Paul reason of temperance and judgment to come, and are we not commanded to add to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godliness?

I, for one, was reared in a temperance home, signing the pledge when scarcely able to write my name at the age of five. Hence, temperance principles of the strictest type have been instilled into me from childhood; never allowing me to partake of wines, eggnogg, punch, etc., when offered, and they have been offered me even in christian homes. An here I wish to emphasize the point that christians cannot be too strict in the observance of temperance, for it is in christian homes that we least expect to be tempted and are least prepared to resist temptations. Many a boy has been persuaded to partake of punch or wine in some social gathering, who would not have thought of entering a bar to take his first glass. What mother does not shudder when she thinks of the temptations her boys, and even girls, will have to overcome when they go out from under her roof to battle with life, and how futile will be her life-long training in this many eyed monster of intemperance. And yet there are intemperate mothers, if they deserve the name of mother, who are seemingly indifferent as to the habits of their children, even sending their boys to the bar-rooms to purchase the accursed drink for them. God pity such mothers and help them to realize the destruction they are bringing not only upon their own boys, but also upon all who may be brought under their influence.

I do not know the statistics, or even if there be such to show the increase of drunkenness among our women, but within my own limited observation there has been a notable increase. Never until recent years were my eyes horrified with the view of a drunken woman, not having dreamed that any but the most degraded could stoop to such depths.

Now it is not uncommon to find moderate and even immoderate drinkers among the women of some of our most respected families. With such mothers and wives what a harvest of drunkards we may expect to reap in the future. God save my boys from such influence, and may I never relax my efforts to save them from such perils through fear of being called a fanatic.

We cannot hope to do much in the way of reclaiming those of our dear unfortunates, who have already fallen into the wiles of the tempter that work has almost been relegated to the Keeley cure and similar measures to try to destroy the appetite for drink, how fruitless in many instances we all know. Our duty, it seems, then is to create and arouse public sentiment in favor of temperance so that in the near future our politicians may not as now be afraid to vote for a temperance candidate on account of its unpopularity, but be eager to adopt it in their platform. Then the day will come when our bar-rooms will be closed because the business is too unprofitable and our schools will be run by taxes paid by honest, prosperous men, and not by taxes wrung by barkeepers from broken hearted mothers and wives and hungry half clad children. God speed the day.

EIGHT MEMBERS PRESENT.

First Meeting of the War Investigation Commission.

MARYLAND MEMBER WAS ABSENT

The President Says There Must Be No "Whitewashing"—Departments to Be Investigated.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Sept. 24—Eight members of President McKinley's war department investigating commission assembled in the cabinet room in the white house this morning pursuant to an invitation by the President. They were Major-Gen. Dodge, of Iowa. Major-General McCook, of Ohio, Retired Brigadier-general Wilson, chief of engineers of the United States army, Ex-governor Woodbury, of Vermont, Ex-governor Beaver, of Pennsylvania, Col. Denby, of Indiana, Col. Sexton, of Illinois, and Capt. Evan P. Howell, of Georgia.

It was expected that the ninth member from Maryland would be present, but he failed to appear.

Governor Beaver's appointment was a surprise, as his name had not been mentioned in connection with this committee. The members occupied the seats of the cabinet, about the confidence table with the president. At the head General Dodge, who expected to be chairman, sat the right of the president.

There was a free and frank exchange of views respecting the work at hand and the methods of accomplishing the same. President McKinley sought to impress among the members that the investigation should be thorough. If any member imagined that the object of the commission was to exonerate any one who is to blame for mismanagement or incompetency except on the clearest and most convincing proof be desired to change the opinion of that member. He believed the idea of having nine commissioners was for the purpose of having three for examing each of the following: Quarters department, commissary department and medical department and that they proceed simultaneously with the work.

Rev. Mr. Caldwell's Lecture.

A large congregation heard Rev. R. E. Caldwell, of Winston, last night at the First Presbyterian church on "The Missionary Motives of St. Paul."

Mr. Caldwell has lately returned from abroad and gave much of what he saw in the Holy Land. He described in graphic language the places made memorable by the experiences of the great apostle to the Gentiles—the first Christian missionary.

The ladies were exhorted to go on in their work of spreading the gospel throughout all lands. The meeting which has been going on for several days, will prove of great value to the missionary enterprise in this section.

Watch Our Football Boys.

The practice of the football team becomes more and more satisfactory to the management. Some of the new "material" introduced this year will make excellent players and the team is destined to be a winner. Several challenges are already on file, but the team wants to be thoroughly practiced and make a good start. You'll hear from them later, however. Their grounds are near the Keeley Institue, where they pratice daily. Go out and "enjoy yourself."

A Coffin Dropped.

A colored man had the misfortune to break his wagon while crossing the street car track today. He was crossing the track diagonally when an axle broke off. The wagon contained a coffin which was being taken out near the edge of town for an old colored man who died last night.

WIDESPREAD DISCONTENT.

Crowds Are Marching Through the Streets

CRISIS BELIEVED TO BE AT HAND.

Suspense Over the Dreyfus Question Exceeds Anything Since the Franco-Prussian War.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Sept. 24—The most widespread discontent prevails over the suspense in the Dreyfus case. It exceeds anything since the Franco-Prussian war. Great crowds are beginning to march through the streets and are loudly demanding a revision of the question.

There is no longer any doubt of the fact that a crisis is at hand in the history of the republic. If the verdict is announced as against a revision there is no doubt that a crisis will be precipitated.

THE COUNCIL ADJOURNS.

Paris, Sept. 24—The cabinet council has adjourned until Monday without making any announcement of a decision on the revision commission. It is understood that the ministers are not in accord upon the question of revision.

Editor Olivier who shot last night is slightly improved today.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Few York, Sept. 23—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt is in excellent spirits this morning and is not in the least disturbed by the efforts of his opponents to make him a non-resident. He said he had the best of legal advice to the effect that he is perfectly eligible to the nomination for governor.

He has left the matter in the hands of his attorney, Elihu Root, who will make a statement if one is necessary. Colonel Roosevelt said there was not much to say about affidavits.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Richmond, Sept. 24—The city is still pervaded with the gloom of yesterday at the funeral of Miss Winnie Davis. The people of the entire south are sincerely mourning the loss of one who was loved—not alone because she was the daughter of an idolized father, but for her own personal merit and charming characteristics.

WAS NOT DROWNED.

And Last Night She Became a Bride in New York.

New York, Sept. 24—Miss Louise King, whose sudden disappearance while bathing at Coney Island on September 11th created such a stir, has been found. Last night she was married to S. Lloyd Chamberlain at the Waldorf-Astoria by Rev. Dr. Nitz, of Sing Sing.

It now transpires that the young woman went to Philadelphia and, through the efforts of the Merchants' Association, of which her brother is president, she was located in the Young Woman's Christian Association.

The Reason of It.

We regret that we failed to get the report of the Missionary Union meeting yesterday. A reporter of this paper was promised the report of the meeting by an official member, but in some way it was overlooked. At least it did not reach this office. We regret it.

A report of the State Baptist Sunday School Convention (colored) was handed us a few minutes before time to go to press; hence, we missed that also, which we regret.

SAYING A HEAP.

"Buck's" Opinion of Judge Shaw—His Promise.

From "Buck's" (W. W. Edwards) letter in the Siler City Messenger of this week we make the following extract.

I would like to have said much of the barbecue at Goldston. But I am tired of writing on my back and will only say that I had the pleasure of meeting on the train many of my old friends from Greensboro, together with Lee Overman, A. L. Brooks, nominee for solicitor, and J. T. Shaw, nominee for judge.

I was right much struck with Judge Shaw and would like to see him on the bench. I told him a few little anecdotes and then told him if I should ever come before him in court he must put it on me lightly, but he only promised me the benefit of a doubt, therefore he is not one of the bribing kind and that is saying a heap for a man these days.

Can't Stomach Skinner.

Mr. Elihu White, ex-collector of internal revenue in this district, was nominated by the republicans of the first senatorial district for a seat in the state senate.

Mr. White declined the nomination, giving as his reason that he would not represent any district in which Harry Skinner was honored by the republican party.

There is a big revolt among republicans against Harry Skinner. There is a good deal of talk about putting up a straight republican candidate for Congress. Skinner cannot poll anything like the republican vote he has in the past. He is very distasteful to many eastern republicans. Many of them are fully as outspoken as ex-Collector White.—Raleigh Post.

Suicide in Person County.

According to the report of a gentleman from Person county, N. C., in Danville yesterday, a most distressing suicide occurred at Ceffa, that county, on Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. H. S. Williams, wife of a prominent farmer, was found hanging in an old barn near her home.

The poor woman was suffering from mental derangement, due to bad health had climbed up on a box in the barn and after tying a rope about her neck, kicked the box from under her and strangled to death. Her husband is almost wild with grief.—Danville Register.

Wonder if Dr. Thompson will charge some former democratic official who is now dead with being responsible for the destruction of crops along the Catawba and Yadkin valleys?

Charlotte is progressive in all things. Yesterday while the funeral of Miss Winnie Davis was taking place in Richmond, the bells of the First Presbyterian, the Methodist and the Catholic churches in Charlotte were tolled. This was thoughtful and appropriate, a sweet, sad tribute.

In his speech at Hood's Swamp, Wayne county, this week, it is said Dr. Cyrus Thompson offered five dollars apiece for former populists who would this year vote the democratic ticket. A dozen or more hands instantly went up and the festive doctor backed out. This should teach the fusion pill-driver that a game of bluff won't go in this campaign. There are many people in the game and the bluffer is liable to be "called" at any moment.

We deeply smpathize with those people living along the Yadkin and Catawba rivers whose crops are destroyed by the booming freshet, caused by the cloud-burst night before last. Corn along the valleys of those streams and the smaller tributary streams was completely submerged, covered with mud and is ruined. The hay crop also is said to be badly damaged. This will mean a hard time for people in those sections the coming winter.

The funeral and burial of the beloved "daughter of the confederacy" yesterday at Richmond was such as, perhaps, has never been accorded a woman in this country. The floral offerings were rare and in immense masses, coming from north, south, east and west. The reunited people's heartstrings were touched with sorrow over the death of the baby daughter of the hero of the "Lost Cause." The sorrow is genuine and universal. This occasion will serve to more firmly cement the bonds of union between the sections which were engaged in the bitter struggle from '61 to '65.

In the Eighth judicial district the republican executive committee has refused to agree to a joint canvass between the candidates for solicitor. The excuse is based upon the ruling of the central executive committee of the republican party. The leaders are afraid for the two pictures to be held up side by side. In this district the candidates for solicitor have agreed to a joint debate. This is right. The people have a right to hear both sides fairly presented at the same time. This can only be done in joint discussions, and the democrats have ever been in favor of such. The republicans are always the dodgers.

LETTER FROM A REPUBLICAN.

About the Terrible Condition of Affairs in Wilmington.

A former citizen of Randleman, now living in Wilmington, writes a letter to a friend in Randleman, an extract of which we reproduce from the Asheboro Courier. Before quoting from the letter the Courier says:

Mr. A. Robertson, who formerly lived at Randleman in this county, and is a well known republican, a truthful and upright man, has written a letter to a friend, Mr. Geo. Lamb, a republican living at Randleman. The letter is a long one and much of it is of a private nature and refers to personal matters and inquiries concerning old friends. We are permitted to publish that part of the letter referring to politics. We give all he says about politics in his own language, omitting all of the first part of the letter which is about other matters:

"Wilmington, N. C.,
Sept. 4, 1898.

"Friend George:

* * * * * Since the war closed there is nothing much to talk only politics and that is being freely discussed this time for the reason that our government in eastern North Carolina is in such an awful condition. It is in about as bad condition as it can get in. Russell and niggerism have about got the best of this state, You people in Randleman can't see how it is going for the simple reason that you haven't got the nigger, but if you will read the papers you will find how it is in other places in the state, and what they put in the papers about it is about all true, for they can't hardly write it worse than it is, and when you hear a democrat holler negro at a republican you may rest assured that he has a cause for it, and you would think the same if you lived in this county.

Let me give you a few facts in regard to the negro in this county. It is claimed, and I guess it is true, that we have 40 negro magistrates in the county. The custom house officers are negroes. The register of Deeds and his crew are all negroes. John T. Howe was the republican representative from New Hanover county; he, too, was a negro. Most of our mail carriers here are black, so is our coroner, and the police force has got so many black imps on it that they would be hard to count. Old pard, this town is in a h—of a fix since the Reps got in power, and it is not the only town in the state, for there are other towns in Eastern North Carolina that have suffered the same fate under republican rule. Now, I once was a good old Rep, as you know, but I am honestly ashamed to own it. I have not been taking any stock in politics since I left Randleman, but that time has come now when it behooves every white man to vote the white man's ticket, and I will say now that am a democrat from my heart and would be glad for all my old republican friends to know it.

* * * Believe me your friend and well wisher.

Special Notice.

Proposals will be received by the city of Greensboro, N. C., up to November 15, 1898, for lighting the streets of said city with electricity for a period of three or more years from January 1, 1899, said proposals to be based on seventy or more arc lights of 1,200 candle power. City reserves right to reject any or all bids. Bids or inquiries should be addressed to B. H. Merrimon, chairman light committee, Greensboro, N. C.

In connection with the above the Industrial and Immigration Association of Greensboro urges investors to investigate Greensboro as a place for building an electric street railway and power plant. Numerous small manufacturing concerns want power of this kind. Incandescent lights are wanted. City has a population of over 10,000 and is growing rapidly. Unusual opportunity for those who mean business; no fakirs wanted. Information will be furnished by the I. & I. Association.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has the largest sale of any salve in the world. This fact and its merit has led dishonest people to attempt to counterfeit it. Look out for the man who attempts to deceive you when you call for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great pile cure.

Step in the Right Direction.

The effort of the city of Greensboro is making to own and control her electric light and water works system is a step in the right direction. Our neighbor can profit if it follows our example in this line. We are younger and smaller, but we are our own masters and do not have to pay exhorbitant prices for the necessary comforts in the way of lights we now enjoy. If Greensboro had started out on the same plan we have she would be enjoying the benefits and conveniences of light and water at about half the present cost.—High Point Citizen.

Cyclone Strikes Mt. Airy.

Mt. Airy, Sept. 23—A cyclone visited here last night, unroofing the C. F. & Y. V. railway depot, blowing down several buildings and doing considerable damage to telephone and telegraph communications. Three miles west of Pilot Mountain the railroad trestle and 100 feet of track was washed away.

One Minute Cough Cure surprises people by its quick cures and children may take it in large quantities without the least danger. It has won for itself the best reputation of any preparation used today for colds, croup, tickling in the throat or obstinate coughs. Howard Gardner.

Beats The Klonkike.

Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemmorhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Trial bottle free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50 cts. and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

A Centre Shot.

While Mr. Linney was speaking at Mocksville Tuesday he proclaimed with a twinkle of his eye, "all democrats are rascals," and seeing his old law partner, Hon. E. B. Jones in the audience, said, "Ain't that so brother Jones?" Quick as a flash came Mr. Jones reply with another twinkle of the eye: "All democratic deserters are." They do say the "bull of the brushes" was struck dumb for once as the crowd went wild with applause at this good natured, but capital bull's eye shot.—Winston Journal.

You invite disappointment when you experiment. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are pleasant, easy, thorough little pills. They cure constipation and sick headache just as sure as you take them. Howard Gardner.

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23rd, says; "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., of Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Truth wears well. People have learned that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are reliable little pills for regulating the bowels, curing constipation and sick headache. They don't gripe. Howard Gardner.

The editor of the Northeast (Pa.) News makes this earnest appeal for lucre in a recent issue:

"Follow readers, in these printing times of hustle and bustle, and when you are receiving an advance upon your grapes, just take time between breaths and roll a cart wheel into the News office upon your subscription. We're gosh-hanged hard up and don't care who knows it, t'either."

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

An Ideal Tourisy Trip to the North and East, via "Chesapeake Line."

The pleasure-seeking tourist can accomplish no more delightful rail and water journey to the North or East than via the Southern railway to Norfolk, thence the Chesapeake Line steamers to Baltimore. The Chesapeake Line is the fast mail route. The fleet consists of the most magnificent steamships afloat, The City of Atlanta, Charlotte, Danville and Baltimore, leaving Norfolk every week day at 5:45 for Baltimore, touching at Old Point Comfort. These ships are especially constructed for the Bay service, and their appointments are as perfect as the most fastidious taste can suggest.

admirably matched and clothed in superb sets of harness all trimmed in gold and drawing a magnificent band wagon, inhabited by twenty-four handsomely uniformed musicians, with fairy-like instruments all glittering and flashing in a noonday sun, is a lovely sight to behold; while the dulcet strains that float out upon the summer air are entrancing. This all may be realized next August in the Grand Trades Parade of the State Fireman's Tournament, but in the time intervening we must prepare ourselves against the ills of life and especially a cold winter.

WELCOME TO CITY OF FLOWERS.

Another Enterprise Which Means Much to Greensboro.

We learn with much pleasure of the arrival of Messrs. D. J. Sinclair and F. A. Macdonald, and their families, of Washington.

The above gentlemen are men of high standing and wide acquaintance. They have associated themselves with Mr. J. F. Jordan, of this city, in the real estate and colonization business.

They will open up a handsome office at once and will locate manufacturers, buy and sell real estate and colonize a clan of good citizens from the north and northwest.

This means much for Greensboro and Guilford county.

We shall have more to say about this firm in a few days.

Mr. Jordan will, of course, continue the tobacco business, giving all the time he can spare to the new concern.

Captain Gray at Home.

Capt. R. Percy Gray, of Co. D, Second regiment, came in from Raleigh last night and will remain until the early part of next week when he will return to his duties at camp.

Captain Gray was, perhaps, the most popular captain in the regiment. He is a perfect gentleman, beloved by the men of the whole regiment, and in the hearts of his own company he will always occupy a warm place. There were a few here who sneered, silently, when he undertook the task of raising a company, yet he raised one to be proud of. The boys say if they had a "D" on their hat they might make themselves at home anywhere, and the "D" was much envied.

Greensboro and Guilford county will always be proud of the captain and the company who represented her in the war with Spain.

An Enjoyable Birthday Party.

The Birthday party given in the Sunday school room of Centenary church last night by the Ladies' Aid society of that church was a great success. A good crowd was present to partake of the delicious dainties prepared by the members and friends of the society and many a year of age was represented by a penny.

The work of the ladies brought forth good fruit and a neat sum was netted for the society.

Col. Wm. J. Bryan Passed Through.

When the vestibule from the north came in this morning every Pullman porter on the train was asked if Col. Wm. J. Bryan was on: Every one replied positively that he was not on his car, and the small crowd who had gone to the depot to see the gallant Colonel dispersed disappointed. A few who had remained expecting that he would come on the local were surprised when the vestibule pulled out to see Col. Bryan, dressed in citizens clothes, sitting by a window in the third from the last car. It was too late then to get to speak to him and with many low murmurs, composed mostly of curse words, for the "ignorant" Pullman porters the crowd dispersed then more disappointed than ever.

Swap Him Off.

It is to be hoped that the rumor current in Washington yesterday that Secretary Alger would retire from the war department and be succeeded by Governor Black of New York, will prove to be well founded.

At this distance from the Empire State, little, if any, is known of Governor Black's qualifications for secretary of war, but in view of the notorious incapacity of the present incumbent, it would be a safe risk to swap Alger off for almost anybody. It is time for Alger to go.—Raleigh Morning Post.
